

EDITOR FORWARD PRIZE-WINNER IN ESSAY CONTEST

(Continued From First Page.)

terests of Richmond on the rural communities of the State, and Mr. Carrington giving some interesting reminiscences of the great Richmond editors of the past.

John Stewart Bryan was introduced by President Cooke as "mine enemy," and there was some good-humored banter between the editors of the two Richmond afternoon papers about an amusing contest over which one has printed the greatest number of want advertisements.

In more serious vein Mr. Bryan went with the editors of the State for a broader clarity for each other's views and mistakes. An editor should be judged, he said, by the sum total of his work by the continuous and persistent effort he was making—not by the occasional slip. When all had the same view in view the upbuilding of the Commonwealth of Virginia—there might be more tolerance between those who merely disagreed as to the methods by which it was to be accomplished.

Then Colonel Murphy, Colonel John Murphy was warmly greeted when he welcomed the editors. Newspaper men and preachers he said were the two worst paid classes of men in this country, and when he opened his hotel he had considered inviting all the preachers in the State to be his guests. But he had found it would never do. Editors might have their differences, but—and Colonel Murphy intimated that he would not undertake the impossible job of trying to harmonize the divergent views of the clergy.

"I have never been better pleased with anything than I have been with the creation of Colonel Murphy. I am a successful organizer—a man who can make the other fellow work. When I went to your meeting at Mt. Elliott I thought there was a lot of fine material going to waste, so I offered these prizes. The papers we have heard read couldn't have been better. The money spent in those prizes was well invested."

Wants Bigger Membership.
"Every man in Virginia has helped me to build this hotel. We have more Virginians at Murphy's than they have at all the other hotels together. You have just commenced your work. I want you to get all the newspaper men in the State into your membership, and to meet here again in 1914 as my guests on the same conditions as you have done this time, and I am sure the Chamber of Commerce, The Times-Dispatch and others who have joined me in showing you a good time will help me to make it even better when you come again."

Ben P. Owen and William Bullitt Pittsburg, one of the founders of the association, spoke briefly. Mr. Pittsburg suggesting that in 1915 the association charter a special train and attend the Panama Exposition at San Francisco in a body. W. A. Barr, poet laureate of the association, read a poem on the virtues of Richmond, and President Cooke announced the convention adjourned after which all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne" while photographers preserved a record of the first banquet scene in Colonel Murphy's new hotel.

Entertained by Chamber.
Virginia editors after but a brief business session yesterday morning, enjoyed the hospitality of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce at luncheon at the Country Club, at which Henry C. Stuart, Democratic candidate for Governor of Virginia, was the principal speaker. The return to Richmond was made in time for the visiting newspaper men to witness the running of The Times-Dispatch modified Marathon. The banquet tendered the association by Murphy's Hotel Company last night was a brilliant event, there being several invited speakers. It marked the close of the adjourned meeting, though many of the visitors will remain in Richmond for the opening of the State Fair to-morrow.

Invited to Alexandria.
Little business remained to be transacted when President C. B. Cooke called the association to order yesterday morning for the closing business session. Alexander J. Wedderburn and Robert S. Barrett, of the Alexandria Gazette, invited the association to hold its next meeting in Alexandria, a matter which was left to the executive committee. Mr. Barrett read the formal invitation of Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, the Chamber of Commerce, and Retail Merchants' Association. Mr. Lock of Luray, and Judge Campbell, of Annister, endorsed the invitation.

During the discussion of some routine affairs, Colonel Murphy, host of the editors at this meeting, who had had up to that time been indisposed and unable to appear at any of the meetings, entered with Senator George B. Keck, of Rockingham, and Rure A. James, of Danville. Colonel Murphy spoke briefly, welcoming his guests and regretting that he had been unable to

A Card

Owing to the discontinuance of the firm of Henry C. Taylor, with whom I have been connected for several years, I wish to inform my friends and patrons that I will on or about October 7 occupy the store located at 2414 East Broad, with a full line of groceries, fresh meats, etc. I will be prepared to furnish my patrons as before, and earnestly solicit your order, promising to give same my personal attention.

R. E. HUBBARD.

VISITORS

to the Fair are cordially invited to our establishments. The best service obtainable in the adjustment of Eye Glasses and Spectacles is at your disposal. Prescription work our specialty, with complete manufacturing plant on the premises.

The S. GALESKI Optical Co.

Main and Broad and Third
Eighth Sts. Next to Corner
KODAK HEADQUARTERS

PRINTING

No matter whether it is a book, a small pamphlet, or a college magazine or bulletin—anything in the way of PRINTING—we can save you money and at the same time satisfy you as to quality and time of delivery. No provoking errors in our work.

B. D. SMITH & BROS., Pulaski, Va.

The store that only suits the average will never do more than an average business.

We select our hats not only to suit the average, but to suit the exception. The very important minority, the exceptional head, the individual face, the critical taste, will find our hat collection responsive.

Our hat makers—
Dunlap,
Henry Heath,
Stetson

—and specialty makers all over the world.

Prices, $2 to $10.

Hats for boys and little girls—the sort worn on Fifth Avenue included.

Good, brisk, breezy walking weather, and here are the good, brisk, breezy styles for young men of all ages.

Overcoats in Oxford gray and novel patterns.

$15 to $40.

Raincoats, $5 to $35.

Don't think you've seen all the big plums until you've seen our Fall Suits at $15 to $40. We've been long preparing for this Fair, and Berry Suits is a special exhibit worth your time to examine.

Efficiency in manufacture, good taste and the newest style have combined to make these garments prize winners in the A1 class.

The Berry label protects you in every way.

for girls and young women have jumped into instant favor.

Man-tailored throat, distinctive and swagger. Can be had only of us.

All the new fabrics and popular shades.

$10 to $25.

Mackinaw Coats for girls and boys, $10.

Middy Blouse, Middy Suits, White and Blue Serge Coats, with cloth to match for skirts—all here.

O. H. BERRY & COMPANY

be present at the opening meeting on the preceding day.

"Some people may say," he went on, "that my inviting you here was a shrewd plan to advertise my hotel. I am glad to say that Murphy's is above the need of any advertising save the maintenance of its standards. My overpowering interest, as I grow older, is to see Virginia united and pressing on to bigger and better things. We must pull the extremities of the State closer together. It takes twenty-four hours for a traveler to go fifty-four miles to Culpeper. That is wrong. I ask you gentlemen of the press to think of the things that will make for Virginia's advancement—not for mere matters of personal or local advantage."

Colonel Murphy closed by again expressing his pleasure at having the newspaper men with him, and the hope that, notwithstanding his temporary indisposition, he would be able to attend the banquet last night.

Great applause followed Colonel Murphy's remarks, and when President Cooke could be heard, he offered his hospitality to the Richmond Chamber of Commerce; to The Times-Dispatch and others, were adopted.

The motor car trip to the Country Club in the open October air proved a pleasant relaxation, and the hospitality of President Carrington and other officials of the Chamber of Commerce was greatly enjoyed.

At Country Club.
The luncheon speech of Mr. Stuart was of an informal character, and was warmly applauded. He talked enthusiastically of the future of Virginia and the great prospects before the State in every line. Carrying out his policy of waiting until after the November election to make official statements, Mr. Stuart did not discuss politics or outline any of the policies that will control his administration.

Our Shoes for this season are right to the letter and right for your feet. There really are no foot troubles if you follow three rules:

Get the right quality.
Get the right shape.
Get the right fit.

You can carry out these rules here, and $3.50 to $7 is the right price.

Our shoe makes—
The Berry—now famous.
The Hanan—long famous.

The Berry Shoe for boys is an economy shoe, because they last as long as good, solid leather can last. $2 to $3.50.

Hunting Shoes, Leggings, Riding Boots and Dancing Pumps.

"One good tune deserves another."

Our Juvenile Department is in tune with the correct styles for boys' wear.

No false note here. We don't monkey with freak fashions nor frail fabrics.

Everything from cloth to buttons is dependable—the Berry label is your guarantee.

Boys' Suits, $3.50 to $15.

Boys' Overcoats, $5 to $15.
Raincoats and everything else boys wear.

ELLYSON REFUSES ANY ANESTHETIC

Lieutenant-Governor Chats With Surgeons While on the Operating Table.

Flatly declining to be placed under the influence of an anesthetic, Lieutenant-Governor J. Taylor Ellyson was operated on for a minor abdominal trouble yesterday morning at the John-Willis Hospital. He would allow the surgeons merely to apply local anesthesia. Though on the operating table for twenty-five minutes, he chatted pleasantly and told several stories to Dr. George Bon Johnston and Dr. Munt Willis, the attending surgeons.

It was said last night that his condition was entirely favorable, but it will be several days before he will be able to receive visitors. It is expected that he will be confined to the hospital for more than two weeks.

Suffering from an affection which had been causing him trouble for some time, Mr. Ellyson was removed to the hospital Friday night. The operation was performed at noon yesterday, and pronounced satisfactory in every detail. He had been contemplating the operation for some time.

SIX WOMEN IN JAIL

Miss Minnie Parks Cannot Express Full Contempt of Judge.

Seattle, Wash., October 4.—Thirty-eight persons, six women and thirty-two men, are yet in the county jail for refusal to pay fines imposed upon them for contempt of court by Superior Judge John E. Humphries. One man, George W. of his cell to-day and paid $100 fine.

The women in jail are Miss Minnie Parks, who told Judge Humphries the "resolutions of defiance" she signed were not half strong enough to express her contempt for him; Mrs. Mary Jarvis, who exclaimed in court that in England judges had less power than in America; Mrs. Ella Price, Mrs. L. Freed, Mrs. Katherine Stirtan, and Mrs. Hannah Anderson.

At to-morrow night's meeting, called by the Free Speech Defense League, a resolution will be presented asking Governor Elston to pardon those sentenced. The Seattle Municipal League to-day instructed its committee on county affairs to investigate the administration of justice in King County Court.

When Judge Humphries convened court this morning there was only one contempt case on the docket. Except for notices of appeal to the Supreme Court, it concludes the contempt proceedings.

URGE CHATTANOOGA'S CLAIMS

Tennesseeans Want Headquarters for Valuation of Railroads.

Washington, October 4.—A delegation of Tennesseeans, headed by Senator Shields and H. Clay Evans, called upon the Interstate Commerce Commission to-day to urge the selection of Chattanooga as the headquarters for the South of the division of physical valuation of railroads. No determination was reached.

VISIT IS DEFERRED

Panama-Pacific Exposition Delegation Will Await More Favorable Time.

Washington, October 4.—Owing to the London existing between Japan and China, the American commission delegation to visit those countries in the interest of the Panama-Pacific Exposition will not sail from San Francisco Tuesday, as planned. The exposition authorities suggested that they defer until conditions were more favorable.

Former Representative Harry S. George Tucker, of Virginia, is chairman of the American commission.

AFTER "GRANDFATHER" AGAIN

Federal Court Called Upon to Construe Oklahoma's Amendment.

Washington, October 4.—The Federal government's efforts to prove that the "grandfather clause" of the Oklahoma Constitution violates the Constitution of the United States, was begun in the Supreme Court to-day with the filing of a brief by Solicitor-General Davis.

The Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit has certified to the Supreme Court the question of the validity of the amendment to the Oklahoma Constitution which grants suffrage to illiterates and their descendants, who were entitled to vote prior to January 1, 1866.

The solicitor contends that the entire provision is unconstitutional because it violates the fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution, guaranteeing suffrage without discrimination as to race, color or previous condition of servitude. The effort of the "grandfather clause" is to exclude practically all illiterate negroes and practically no illiterate white man.

THE DISTINCTLY DIFFERENT
PLAYER-PIANO IS THE

Genuine
INNER-PLAYER
TRADE MARK

Its mechanism embodies not only the latest, but all of the best devices for producing a musical effect and quality second only to national professionals' masterhand.

This player renders the most difficult music just as it should be played, with volume, subdued notes, perfect expression, etc.

Be sure to see us or write for free catalogue before buying elsewhere.

The Corley Company

"The House That Made Richmond Musical"

SULZER HANGING BETWEEN FORCES

(Continued From First Page.)

and what is the use of hurting a lot of his friends when there is no possible chance to save himself?

The belief that the Governor will resign at the last minute in the event he does not elect to take the stand is growing more general. It is known that Chester Platt, the Governor's confidential secretary, has advised his chief to resign on many occasions, and the Governor has seriously considered this action, but has so far refused to do so in the hope of having an opportunity to deliver his attack against Tammany.

It was denied to-night that Louis A. Sarecky will be placed on the stand Monday. This witness is told how he spent the campaign funds without the consent of Mr. Sulzer. This would account for the large amount of the money which the prosecution alleges the Governor failed to account for in his sweeping statement concerning the campaign expenditures which is required by law.

WILL RETAIN NAME

Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Rejects Proposal to Change. Cleveland, Tenn., October 4.—The question of changing the name of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to the Methodist Church in America was rejected by the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session here to-day by a vote of 134 to 12.

Bristol, Va., was selected as the next place of meeting.

DEFICIENCY BILL PASSES

Carries $800,000 More Than When It Passed the House.

Washington, October 4.—The Senate to-day passed the urgency deficiency bill, carrying a provision to abolish the United States Commerce Court December 31 next. It provided, however, that the four remaining judges of the court shall continue as judges of the United States Circuit Court until resignation, removal or death.

The bill was passed almost immediately after the Senate convened to-day and it had been ascertained that a quorum was present. There was no roll call on the bill. Senator Vardaman, of Mississippi, before the viva voce vote was taken, announced that he intended to vote against the measure because of the Senate amendment providing $25,000 for the memorial bridge construction and $7,500 to purchase a new automobile for the Vice-President.

The bill as passed by the Senate carries about $800,000 more than when it left the House.

Our Secret Leaked! Failure!

Stealing information stopped by the use of our Security (Patented) SEALS. Competitors' tricks nullified. Unreliable employees fooled. Records and files secured. Inviolability of mail secured. Your affairs safe and secure.

Quickly applied; inexpensive; metal can't be opened without discovery. Sample package 10c. Stationers, ask prices.

GENERAL SPECIALTY CO., PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA.

STATE FAIR

NOTICE.

General admission tickets for adults and children to the State Fair have been put on sale at the following places:
W. F. Warriner, 224 Grove Ave.
W. R. Hunt, 125 W. Grace St.
W. H. Lowery, 1101 W. Main St.
Paragon Pharmacy, 391 W. Cary St.
R. E. Chad, Harrison & Broad Sts.
Tarrant Drug Co., 1 W. Broad St.
Jerry Moreno, 225 W. Broad St.
Heller Bros., 7th and Broad Sts.
Grant Drug Co., 11th and Broad Sts.
W. E. McCoy, 8th and Broad Sts.
W. D. Greenhaw, 29 North 8th St.
Richmond Pharmacy, 174 E. Main St.
Levenson Drug Co., 205 E. Main St.
Strauss & Co., 322 E. Main St.
Business Men's Club, American National Bank Bldg.
W. D. Greenhaw, 1100 E. Main St.
Grant Drug Co., 1201 E. Main St.
W. B. Elam, 139 E. Main St.
Washington & Early, 12th and Hull Sts.
W. W. Friend, 151 Hull St.
Jno. T. Kuester, 200 Louisiana Ave.
Williams Pharmacy, 229 North 21st St.
Church Hill Bank, 209 E. Broad St.
Boxes and reservations will be on sale every day to 10 A. M. at 89 East Main Street.

Reward

Twenty-five dollars ($25) will be paid as a reward for the arrest and conviction of one J. W. Rainey, who on September 29, 1913, did unlawfully take from our stables at Bailey, N. C., one gray horse-mule; when last heard from was driving this mule to a two-horse hackney wagon with a light bay mare pony, hinged face; the wagon was loaded with plunder; also a road cart tied to the same. Should this party be brought to justice, wire STRICKLAND & HESBETH, Bailey, N. C., and get your reward. This man is about fifty years old, and when last seen was at Stems, N. C.

—Photo by Foster